Poster Rubric for Literature Circle Project	Self Assessment	Peer Assessment	Teacher Assessment	Notes
Identifies five significant components of the plot in picture form: 1. Introduction/exposition-(sets the tone/mood/introduces the characters and setting and provides background information) 2. Inciting-(introduces conflict) 3. Climax-(highest point of interest or suspense) 4. Resolution-(where the central conflict has ended) 5. Denouement-material that follows the resolution (25 pts.)
Label each of the five components of the plot, placing the label under or over each picture. (10 pts.)
One paragraph summary accompanies each scene/picture. Paragraphs are typed and contain few grammar/spelling errors. [See rubric for writing a paragraph if needed.] (25 pts.)
Each picture shows evidence of time, thought, and neatness. (15 pts.)
Each picture is colorful while showing evidence of creativity and originality. (15 pts.)
Rubric evaluated by student and a peer. (10 pts.)				